Our Attendance Of Worship
By Ron Boatwright

Worship is a privilege only children of God have. There are many blessings we receive from faithful attendance in worship. God has commanded us to assemble regularly to worship Him in spirit and in truth (John 4:24). Hebrews 10:25-27 says, "Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see the day approaching. For if we sin willfully after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, but a certain fearful expectation of judgment, and fiery indignation." When we forsake the assembly of the church, except for sickness or circumstances beyond our control, we are not only disobeying God, but we are robbing ourselves of all the benefits of worship which would have helped us to grow and become spiritually strong. To forsake worship is to sin willfully.

By forsaking the assembly, we also endanger our souls because as the above verse says, "For if we sin willfully after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for our sins." Christ is our only sacrifice for sin. When people reject their only sacrifice for sin there remains nothing but "a certain fearful expectation of judgment and fiery indignation."

When people fall away from the Lord, it is usually not a sudden thing. They usually start by forsaking the assembly of Wednesday night Bible study. Then they start missing Sunday evening worship. Next they stop coming to Sunday morning Bible study; and then finally they stop coming to Sunday morning worship. This is the usual path of apostasy for most people who fall away. Oh, some may come back and "visit" several times a year and a few may even attend only the Sunday morning worship with little regularity. These are described in 2 Peter 2:22 as, "A dog turns to his own vomit again, and a sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire." Some members have turned to their own vomit and are in the pigpen and they can no longer smell the stench. Let's not lose our souls by unfaithfulness.

Life Is A Gift

Today before you say an unkind word — think of someone who can't speak.
Before you complain about the taste of your food — think of someone who has nothing to eat.
Before you complain about your husband or wife — think of someone who's crying out to God for a companion.
Today before you complain about life — think of someone who died too early.
Before you complain about your children — think of someone who desires children but they're barren.
Before you argue about your dirty house someone didn't clean or sweep — think of the people who are living in the streets.
Before whining about the distance you drive — think of someone who walks the same distance with their feet.
And when you are tired and complain about your job — think of the unemployed, the disabled, and those who wish they had your job.
But before you think of pointing the finger or condemning another — remember that not one of us is without sin and we all answer to one Maker.
And when depressing thoughts seem to get you down — put a smile on your face and thank God you're alive and still around.
