Is One Church Just As Good As Another?

By Mike Riley

When you were seeking a wife — Was one just as good as another?

When you last called the doctor — Was one just as good as another?

When he gave you a dose of medicine — Was one just as good as another?

When the pharmacist filled your prescription — Was one ingredient just as good as another?

When you paid the cashier — Was one amount just as good as another?

When you took your wife to the hospital — Was one baby just as good as another?

When the Realtor handed you a deed — Was one just as good as another?

When the bank gave you your statement — Was one as good as another?

When you got into your car — Was one just as good as another?

When you caught a bus or train — Was one just as good as another?

When Christ shed His blood for “His church” (Acts 20:28; Matthew 16:18) — How can “another” be as good as it?

YOU'VE GOT MAIL

In today's world the only thing that seems to show up in the mail are BILLS. Getting a personal, hand written note is a great treasure these days. We have several visitors each week. If you would like to send them a personal card please let your team leader know so they can give you an address!

The Coopers reannounced their membership!

Remember your Secret Sister once a month!
