Questions

Listed below are some questions that need to be answered by every member of the church. It does not matter what position you play within the church; if you are a teacher, member, Bible class teacher, elder or a deacon. These questions are vital and must be answered. An incorrect answer on any of these questions will show that study is further needed. These are questions that are affecting the church worldwide. It does affect the church here. The answer to these questions might show your Bible knowledge. If you do not know the answers maybe it is time for you to open your Bibles and study. Here are the questions. Take your time and answer each one:

1. Am I a member of the church which Christ built and will save, or am I a member of a church established by Alexander Campbell and Barton Stone, neither of whom can save me?
2. Am I a Christian in the biblical sense of that word, or am I a Protestant Evangelical?
3. If the church of Christ is actually a denomination, as some say, then what right do we have to exist?
4. Must my loved ones be baptized to receive God's saving grace, or will they get to heaven without it?
5. Are Protestant and Catholic churches equally pleasing to God as the church of Christ? If so, why should I stay with the church of Christ
6. Have my previous faith and worship been Bible centered or were they all a matter of human tradition?
7. Can I trust my Bible as the inspired and inerrant Word of God, or does it contain mistakes and contradictions?
8. Was the Christian faith once for all times delivered to the church (Jude 3), or does it have to be changed and adjusted each time a new world-view arises?
9. Are the commands and prohibitions of God to be understood as absolutes, or are they all relative and left up to me to accept or reject?
10. Were my grandparents and parents true Christians when they heard the gospel, believed it, repented of their sins, and were immersed for their sins?
11. If a Christian woman insists that the prohibition against women teaching or having authority over men, (1 Timothy 2:11-12), does not apply to her and proceeds to do that, is she defying God? Is it a sin to defy God?
12. If the congregation of the church of Christ in which I grew up and was baptized changes its name, its worship, and faith, is it still a church of Christ?
13. If the preacher and elders of my congregation introduce new teachings and practices that I cannot verify by scripture, do I sin by staying with them?

14. If we can use the Old Testament to justify the use of instruments of music, could we not also use it to justify the burning of incense, having a separate priesthood and special garments for them?

15. If because God does not say, "Thou shalt not use instruments," we can use them, could we baptize babies since He does not say, "Thou shalt not baptize babies?"

16. If the New Testament is not the law of Christ, how should I understand those verses that speak of the Law of Christ (Galatians 6:2)?

17. If we borrow mystical practices of meditation and contemplation from pagans, does that make us in some way pagan?

18. If the church of Christ is so terribly flawed and if denominational churches are so wonderful and good, why should I stay with the bad rather than go to that which is better?

19. If it is my intention to change the church of Christ into a contemporary denominations church am I honest and truthful to keep attending the church of Christ?

How did you do? Love Keith
