Visitors Welcome!

You are truly our honored guests! We hope that you find our Bible Study and Worship Service beneficial to you. We seek only to worship God in the same manner as done by Christians when the church began in Acts 2. Please stay after services so that we may get to know you. For your convenience, there is a nursery in the foyer for babies up to 18 months old and a toddlers room next to the auditorium.

LUNCH NEXT DOOR-PLEASE STAY AND EAT!

Team 1 NEEDS a leader!!! We have plenty of capable people...can someone help?

No Man Is An Island

“For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself” (Romans 14:7). Jesus taught, This passage directs our thinking toward the thought that there are some things that we cannot do by ourselves!

“How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without a preacher?” (Romans 10:14). In another place we also learn, “For we are labourers together with God: ye are God’s husbandry, ye are God’s building” (1 Corinthians 3:9). The preposition in the original language expresses the joint labor of teachers one with another as oxen in the same yoke. These teachers are under the direction of God, under His employment. Each of these workers performs that which is indispensable to the end of glorifying God. One of the workers is laying the foundation and another is building thereon. One can not work by himself and get the work done. It takes both teachers. It takes both workers to get the job done.

The problem at Corinth was that some were following only one teacher. Some were following Paul. Some were following Apollos. Some were following Cephas, while others were following Christ (1 Corinthians 1:11). Yet each of these teachers played a part in the educations of these Christians. Each one of these teachers had added their part to the building up of the church. Understand that none was working all by himself, they were working together!

Paul said, “For while one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are ye not carnal? Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man? I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase. So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase. Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour” (1 Corinthians 3:4-7). We are to be doing our work, but our work should be in conjunction with the work of others. The workers were cooperating and working for the common goal of bringing others to Christ.

While constructing any building a person cannot do all of the work by themselves. Think about trying to hold a board in place and then trying to nail it at the same time. Try holding a bolt on one side of the building and screwing a nut on that bolt on the other side of the building. A person cannot do it. People need to work together to get the building constructed.

Paul uses the illustration of a building many times to refer to the church. In 1 Corinthians 3 two time reference is made to the church and a building (verses 3 and 16). In the book of Ephesians Paul uses a building to illustrate how the church is to function. “Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God; And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone; In whom all the building fitly framed together growth unto an holy temple in the Lord: In whom ye are also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit” (Ephesians 2:19-22).

We need to be helping each other. We need to be supporting each other when one of us is weak. We need to be holding one another up when the way grow weary. But if a person decides that they do not need any help they are setting themselves up for failure. Let us work together. Let us get into the harness and pull together to get the work done and obtain the goal of heaven. Love Keith
