THE TEAMS HAVE MET!

Team 1 will meet today to go over some new things the Elders have presented. Please be patient as these new groups are being reconstructed. Some things will take time to finalize.

The group leaders are excited for the new changes. Please make sure you go to your groups meetings.

HELP NEEDED...

Crissy needs a volunteer to do the bulletin next week, November 12. If you can do it and email it to John Newham, he can help you print it. Please let her know if you can!

Thank you for visiting with us today...

You are truly our honored guests! We hope that you find our Bible Study and Worship Service beneficial to you. We seek only to worship God in the same manner as done by Christians when the church began in Acts 2. Please stay after services so that we may get to know you. For your convenience, there is a nursery in the foyer for babies up to 18 months old and a toddlers room next to the auditorium.

Facing Into The Gale By Mike Riley

The experienced sailor knows that a ship must head into a storm in order to avoid shipwreck. He must keep the ship facing into the gale (see the nautical term, “aloof”). It takes great courage to head into seemingly further trouble, but it is only by facing difficulties head on, that they can be conquered.

There are some things that cannot be avoided and which, if not resisted (1 Peter 5:8-9), will overcome and overwhelm us (1 Timothy 1:18-20). The difficulty with trying to run away from an adversary is that an adversary, like the wind, runs faster, will soon catch up to us, and will soon overcome us (Exodus 14:1-10).

As Christians, let us never turn our back on trouble, but rather face it, and in so doing, become a victor instead of a victim (Exodus 14:13-14, 26-31; cf. Psalm 106:7-12).

Let's think about it!

TEAM B-THIRD SUNDAYS!

The Elders are working on the budget for 2018.
